

Promotion of Interdisciplinary Research by Taking Advantage of the University's Comprehensiveness

Institute for Frontier Science Initiative, Kanazawa University

Integration of superior research projects at Kanazawa University, and promotion of interdisciplinary research and continued encouragement of global brain circulation in an organized manner

Reform of Governance

Strategic placement of professors by President's initiative

Research Department

Intensive reinforcement of research performance and promotion of integrated research

Strategic placement of research professors and 16 young PIs

Pursuit of Truth Research Core

Next Generation Medical Development Research Core

Green Innovation Research Core

Higher Education Department

Special support for young investigators and graduate students

Inter-laboratory training of high quality

Research Support Department

Support by URAs for interdisciplinary and international research projects

Creating Innovative Research Results and Opening New Fields of Scientific Inquiry

Outcomes Expected

Establishment of world-leading research bases

- Performance reinforcement of Cancer Research Institute
- Establishment of a new institute based on the outcomes of Research Department (FY2018)
- Multiple research fields to be within 100 in academic world rankings (FY2021)

Organizational development

- Co-establishment of Transdisciplinary Sciences graduate school with JAIST, Japan Advanced Institute of Science and Technology (FY 2018)
- Reorganization of current system based on colleges and schools
- Establishment of international Joint Degree programs and others